About This Content

For unknown reasons, you find yourself trapped in a representation of your mind. You are not certain if you're a prisoner or just someone who can't remember the distant past. After several trials, however, you are starting to think that there's more to the small place you've been mistaken for your home.

Will you solve the riddles, learn the words and create the conditions that will allow you to know more?

Are you willing to lose what you have?

It is time to dare. It is time to escape.
